

COMMITMENT TO QUALITY

EDS and DMA share a common goal with the provider community to ensure quality health care is provided to all North Carolina Medicaid recipients in the most efficient and economical manner.

Quality is the process of delivering products and services that meet our customers' requirements and exceed their expectations to generate customer satisfaction and success.